#OddSocksDay

#ChooseRespect

We wore odd socks to raise awareness for Anti-Bullying Week.

Wearing odd socks helped us to remember that we are all different and reminded us to celebrate what makes us all unique.

Reception – Hazel

We discussed what it means when someone is bullied and how it makes us feel.

We talked about respect and all the amazing things that we can do to be respectful to all people.

We then showed our friends how we felt when they made good choices such as being kind, giving hugs, saying nice things and being helpful.

Reception – Elm

In Elm Class, we looked at what bullying means. We specifically looked at what would classify as bullying and how it would make us feel.

We all joined in with colouring, sharing the colours with our friends and saying something nice to the person next to us. Then we talked about what behaviours we could do instead.

‘We could share with our friends’

‘Make sure all our friends are joining in’

‘We need to use kind words and kind hands’

‘We need to make our friends happy with high fives’

Year 1 – Willow

In Willow Class, we have been thinking carefully about respect and what that looks like through our everyday actions.

We sorted pictures of respectful choices and not respectful choices.

We drew pictures of what it looks like when we live our school values through our actions.
